

FROZEN

Firefighters brave cold, wet conditions during ice rescue training

The Shelby Township Fire Department on Jan. 26 practices ice rescues at Heritage Park, located just outside the township's municipal offices on Van Dyke and 24 Mile Road. Wearing special equipment, the ice rescue team was protected from the freezing water and cold temperatures. The training exercise aims to reduce rescue operation times in the event someone falls through the ice.

PHOTO BY SEAN DELANEY - ADVISOR & SOURCE

