Temporary Uses

Overview

Who approves temporary uses?
Minor temporary uses and buildings may be approved by the Planning Director. All other temporary uses are approved by the Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA).

At the discretion of the Planning Director, an application for a minor temporary use may be referred to the Zoning Board of Appeals for review and approval.

What is the difference between minor and major temporary uses?
Minor temporary uses include minor buildings and uses of a temporary nature. Such uses may include seasonal sales; tent sales; holiday sales; on-site sales offices for new developments; on-site events of places of worship, schools, or nonprofit groups; and the like.

Uses that are not determined to be minor are classified as major temporary uses.

What do I need to know about applying for and conducting a temporary use?
- Applications for temporary use permits must clearly demonstrate that there will be no adverse impacts on adjoining properties and residences from the temporary use or building.
- The erection, construction, completion, use and maintenance of any temporary structure shall at all times be in full compliance with all state statutes, public health regulations and Township ordinances.
- All setback, land coverage, lighting, off-street parking and other requirements for the temporary use shall be established and made at the discretion of the approving body.
- The approval of a temporary use shall in no way constitute a change in the basic uses permitted in the zoning district or on the subject property.

<tr>
<td>Do I need to attend any meetings?</td>
<td>Minor temporary uses may not require any meetings. If your minor temporary use application is referred to the Zoning Board of Appeals for review and approval, or if you are requesting approval of a major temporary use, you will be notified of all meetings with your request on the agenda. It is strongly recommended that you have representation at all meetings at which your request will be discussed. The Zoning Board of Appeals may take action on a request whether you are in attendance or not; however, action may be postponed if you are not available for questions.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Can a temporary use permit be revoked?</td>
<td>Yes. A temporary use permit may be revoked for any temporary structure or use for any violation of the terms of the approval.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How long is approval valid?</td>
<td>The approving body shall specify the time period covered by the approval. The Planning Director and Zoning Board of Appeals may permit minor and major temporary uses for periods up to six (6) months. Extensions may be granted for up to six (6) months at a time. In no instance shall any temporary structure be permitted to exist for more than two (2) years. Major temporary uses that are not otherwise permitted in any zoning district may be permitted by the Zoning Board of Appeals for periods up to twelve (12) months. Extensions may be granted for up to twelve (12) months at a time.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Does approval allow me to commence my temporary use?</td>
<td>Final approval may not necessarily authorize construction or commencement of the use. Applicants should note that some temporary uses may require a vendor’s license through the Shelby Township Clerk’s Office. In some instances, inspections may be required by the Building Department and Fire Department. A building permit may also be required.</td>
