The Shelby Township Gardeners' Club will host its bi-annual Garden Walk from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. July 16.

"This is our biggest semi-annual fundraiser," club spokeswoman Ivy Schwartz said.

According to Schwartz, this year's Garden Walk will showcase five residential garden displays created by Shelby Township residents Dolores and Don Bignotti, Jan and Bob Leverenz, Dawn and Robert Kenny, Sandy and Mark Breitenbeck, and Sheila and Keith Brownlee, as well as the Heritage Gardens outside the township's municipal building at 52700 Van Dyke.

The event will be held rain or shine. Advance tickets are available for $10 at the Shelby Township Public Library, 51680 Van Dyke, and the Parks and Recreation Office, 52700 Van Dyke. Tickets will also be available for $12 on the day of the event at Heritage Gardens.
